ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome to Newington and Auburn Anglican Churches Good Friday Online Livestream!

Thank you for joining with us today. It is a joy to celebrate Easter together. For six years we have met on Good Friday at Newington Public School. That's simply not possible this year! But Easter is still the best news in the world and what we all need at this time!

We'd love to get to know you more. We'd love to know that you've been with us. We'd love to help you get to know Jesus more. We'd love to pray for you. Please fill out the Welcome Card online: auburnanglican.org/card

During the gathering restrictions in effect because of coronavirus, our church continues to meet weekly online, every Sunday at 10 am. We'd love to see you there! Log on at: newingtonanglican.org

Easter Sunday, April 12, 10am at auburnanglican.org

Our combined Easter Sunday celebration will continue on Sunday with Freedom From Fear, Part 2. Please join us again!

Essential Jesus - There are copies of Jesus' brilliant biography available. Now is a great time to read this thrilling true story! If you would like one, let us know at auburnanglican.org/card and we will deliver one to your letterbox.

2. The Problem of Fear

a) A Threatening World

b) Out of Control

c) “We Are Perishing!”

3. Stronger Than What Scares Us...

4. ...But Also More Terrifying!

5. Care For The Perishing

Mark 4:35-41

³⁵ That day when evening came, he said to his disciples, “Let us go over to the other side.” ³⁶ Leaving the crowd behind, they took him along, just as he was, in the boat. There were also other boats with him. ³⁷ A furious squall came up, and the waves broke over the boat, so that it was nearly swamped. ³⁸ Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke him and said to him, “Teacher, don’t you care we are perishing?”

³⁹ He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Quiet! Be still!” Then the wind died down and it was completely calm.

⁴⁰ He said to his disciples, “Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

⁴¹ They were terrified and asked each other, “Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!”
